```

```

Listing 1: A sample code listing. The method `rate` performs the automated algorithm analysis by searching for a Lyapunov function that bounds the rate of convergence of the performance measure.

Our package enables users to write optimization algorithms using simple syntax that resembles the mathematical algorithm structure, as illustrated in **??.